International Gastronomic Wines Competition™

31th MARCH & 1st APRIL 2014

PARIS - FRANCE

A GATHERING OF INTERNATIONAL REFERENCES OF GASTRONOMIC WINES

Wines of the World judged by international experts:
enologists, sommeliers, gastronomic trades, hedonists business people, media and gastronomic trades .

We are aware that gastronomy varies according to social classes, nations, regions, eras and trends.

Local, regional and national gastronomic habits reside, however, solidly anchored and based not only on terroir products, but also on technical and artistic principles. Across the generations and around the world, Wine and Gastronomy are transmitted and continue to convey strong images of identity.

Régine LE COZ, Wine and Gastronomy have today become cultural products, synonymous with Enologist (State Diploma) discovery, diversity, exchange and conviviality, and it is these products that allow us to approach the different gastronomies of the world.

In this way, by pushing the limits of professionalism and curiosity, we wanted for the 3rd edition of this international competition, a magic and mythical venue, we are proud that it will take place in the realm of international gastronomy, close to heart of epicureans in

Dominique MILARDI, Master et Chef Sommelier

PARIS

This international competition offers the possibility for wines from all countries that have attained organoleptic levels that approach the pinnacle of their appellation or their origin, to be tasted and to benefit from the professional, international expertise of men and women from the world of Wine and Gastronomy.

This international competition is also destined to bring to light the strong economic impact, the professionalism and the expertise of these two sectors of economic activity, the world of wine and of gastronomy on an international level.

The wines will be tasted anonymously and intrinsically.

Isabella LOSADA de ARMAS, Chef

In order to judge these gastronomic wines, the juries will consist of 5 people (men or women: 2 French and 3 foreigners) representing each of the 5 categories below:

- Those that produce wine (Jury President): oenologists, winemakers, winegrowers...
- Those that supply and serve wine: wine merchants, sommeliers....
- Those that add value to wine: Chefs, caterers...
- Those that teach about wine and gastronomy, and the media: professors, press people
- Those that appreciate wine: hedonists

We look forward to your participation in this competition, and to working together to offer to our consumers of today and tomorrow gastronomic wines of the highest quality.

CONCOURS INTERNATIONAL DES VINS DE GASTRONOMIE™

WINE COMPETITION AGREEMENT- COMPETITION RULES

CONCOURS INTERNATIONAL DES VINS DE GASTRONOMIE - INTERNATIONAL GASTRONOMIC WINE COMPETITION is organized in Brignoles by Inter Concours du Monde – 25, rue Trinité – 83170 Brignoles (France).

Article 1: OBJECTIVE OF THE COMPETITION

This competition is open to all wines from all countries and all viticultural regions with a specified geographical denomination. In what concerns the French wines, they should have made a statement of claim under section D. 644-5 and D. 646-6 of the Rural Code. Wines without geographical indication will not be accepted for the competition.

The competition is intended to highlight the intrinsic qualities of wines from specific geographical areas and to distinguish those wines of outstanding quality and that are exceptionally expressive of their appellation or origin.

This international competition is also destined to bring to light the strong economic impact, the professionalism and the expertise of these two sectors of economic activity, the world of wine and of gastronomy on an international level.

The prizes awarded in this international competition will :

- Provide all competitors with a representative evaluation of their products.
- Encourage the launch and sales of quality wines both in terms of the product and its presentation.
- Promote the quality, diversity and excellence of the prizewinning gastronomic wines from different appellations or origins.
- Encourage the expansion of wine and vine culture at an international level.
- Reinforce the identity and consumer perception of gastronomic wine internationally.
- By providing international references, communicate a message to 80% of consumers who are highly receptive to information on gastronomic wine.

Concours International des Vins de Gastronomie™ / International Gastronomic Wine Competition™ is organized by Inter Concours du Monde Association in accordance with the rules outlined below.

Article 2 : COMPETITORS

Wines provided by the following individuals or organizations will be accepted:

- Individual wine producers
- Groups of wine producers
- Co-operative wineries
- Groups of co-operative wineries
- Wine brokers
- Wine producers and brokers
- Importers
- Distributors

Article 3 : ENTRY REQUIREMENTS FOR THE WINES

The entry requirements to Concours International des Vins de Gastronomie™ / International Gastronomic Wine Competition™ are as follows:

- The wines must be bottled and ready for sale.
 - Their labels should conform to :
 - The European Union regulation applied to EU member states.
 - To the regulation in force in the country where the wine is produced and to the provisions regarding the importation of wine applicable to non-EU member states.
- Wine entered for the competition should be available in quantities of at least 1080 litres.
- However, where the production volume of a given wine is particularly low, the batch may consist of less than 1080 litres but should nonetheless be greater than 108 litres.

Article 4 : PRESENTATION DES ECHANTILLONS

To qualify for the competition, the samples of wines presented should come from an homogeneous lot. Samples should be presented as follows :

- Four bottles of 0.5l to 1.5l per sample or equivalent 3-liter bottle.
- The bottles and labels should be as per their usual commercial presentation.

Article 5 : PROCEDURE FOR SENDING SAMPLES

Each sample must be delivered at the place indicated by the date indicated on the registration along with their registration card sheet, its wine analysis and its label to identify the sample.

Upon arrival, each sample is checked against the registration received in its analysis report sheet, and the statement of claim for the wines produced in France granted a geographical indication.

The Inter Concours du Monde Association reserves the right to refuse samples arriving after the closing date for the receipt of samples indicated on the application form.

-The costs of shipping the samples are the responsibility of the sender. Samples are sent at the sender's risk. All samples sent freight collect will be refused. Samples refused entry into the competition will not be returned.

Article 7 : COMPETITION RULES

The samples will be presented in an totally anonymous fashion to the judging panels.

Upon arrival, the sample is identified by a label on the bottle indicating the name of the competition year, the registration number label (Producer - Sample No. Sample).

Samples will not ring Cete 35-100 TR or crown ring 29 will be reconditioned in a bottle with this type of ring.

The implementation is done anonymously by bagging the sample to be presented to the tasters. The bag containing the sample is black baggy and color. The sample is presented without overlap on the bag containing the sample is indicated on a label, the anonymous number (jury, series and item number). The samples are grouped according to their category in series and mini-series in the series.

The organizers reserve the right to cancel a category for which an insufficient number of samples have been received: three samples minimum from three different competitors.

Each wine tasted is scored individually and not comparatively. The wines will be blind-tasted and for their intrinsic properties.

The marking scheme is a point by point system as used in the official OIV tasting sheet out of 100 points. The total number of judges is decided according to the number of samples presented.

The Technical Commission of the Inter Concours du Monde designates nominally tasters members of each jury through its database of international tasters.

Each table jury consists of five jurors (women or men), 3 foreign judges and two French judges each representing one of the five panels below that correspond to the highlighted trades wine, wine and wine tourism trades.

We will find a juror of the amateur panel discovery. The choice to integrate amateurs is a deliberate because the panel reflects the tastes and expectations of consumers.

Each juror is from a different country and the Technical Committee strives to meet a wide geographical dispersion and panel times.

Each judging panel comprises five judges, two of whom are French, recognized for their abilities based on each of the following panels:

Panel 1 : oenologists and/or winemakers and/or vineyard owners, producers ; Presidents of the judging panels ;

Panel 2 : distribution, commercialization & catering trade,

Panel 3 : trades in wine tourism ,

Panel 4 : education, training and media;

Panel 5 : wine lovers – amateur discovery .

The total number of international judges is determined by the number of samples presented.

Inter Concours du Monde Association collects an affidavit stating jury members their links, direct or indirect, with businesses, schools, professional organizations or associations whose activities, products or interests may affect the wines entered. A judge may not judge her own wines.

Association Inter Concours du Monde appoints a president, oenologist or possess an equivalent degree or having demonstrated a high qualification and experience for tasting in the wine business and secretary for each judging panel. Juries operate under the authority of the President, it may be a member of the jury. It provides, in conjunction with the Technical Manager, the Commissioners of the competition, the organizer, the overall functioning of the jury and the right tasting.

Inter Concours du Monde Association will ensure the proper functioning of Concours International des Vins de Gastronomie™ / International Gastronomic Wine Competition™ by organizing the preparation of the samples and organization of the tasting sessions.

Inter Concours du Monde Association will organize the monitoring, exploitation and publication of results using an appropriate evaluation form.

Article 8 : AWARDS

The number of awards attributed during the Concours International des Vins de Gastronomie™ / International Gastronomic Wine Competition™ Association will not represent more than a third of the samples presented or/and those that obtain more of 80 points on 100 points.

The prizes awarded by the judging panels of the Concours International des Vins de Gastronomie™ / International Gastronomic Wine Competition™ Association will be at three levels:
