A GATHERING OF INTERNATIONAL REFERENCES OF GASTRONOMIC WINES

Wines of the World judged by international experts:
enologists, sommeliers, gastronomic trades, hedonists business people,
media and gastronomic trades .

Régine LE COZ,
Enologist (State Diploma)

We are aware that gastronomy varies according to social classes, nations, regions, eras and trends.

Local, regional and national gastronomic habits reside, however, solidly anchored and based not only on terroir products, but also on technical and artistic principles. Across the generations and around the world, Wine and Gastronomy are transmitted and continue to convey strong images of identity.

Wine and Gastronomy have today become cultural products, synonymous with discovery, diversity, exchange and conviviality, and it is these products that allow us to approach the different gastronomies of the world.

In this way, by pushing the limits of professionalism and curiosity, we wanted for the 4th edition of this international competition, a magic and mythical venue, we are proud that it will take place in the realm of international gastronomy, close to heart of epicureans in

Dominique MILARDI,
Master & Chef Sommelier

PARIS

This international competition offers the possibility for wines from all countries that have attained organoleptic levels that approach the pinnacle of their appellation or their origin, to be tasted and to benefit from the professional, international expertise of men and women from the world of Wine and Gastronomy.

This international competition is also destined to bring to light the strong economic impact, the professionalism and the expertise of these two sectors of economic activity, the world of wine and of gastronomy on an international level.

The wines will be tasted anonymously and intrinsically.

Isabella LOSADA de ARMAS,
Chef

In order to judge these gastronomic wines, the juries will consist of 5 people (men or women: 2 French and 3 foreigners) representing each of the 5 categories below:

- Those that produce wine (Jury President): oenologists, winemakers, winegrowers...
- Those that supply and serve wine: wine merchants, sommeliers....
- Those that add value to wine: Chefs, caterers...
- Those that teach about wine and gastronomy, and the media: professors, press people
- Those that appreciate wine: hedonists

We look forward to your participation in this competition, and to working together to offer to our consumers of today and tomorrow gastronomic wines of the highest quality.

COMPETITION RULES

CONCOURS INTERNATIONAL DES VINS DE GASTRONOMIE - INTERNATIONAL GASTRONOMIC WINE COMPETITION™ is organized by MAISON des Cuvées de France - 21, rue Thiers - 63120 Blagnac (France)

ARTICLE 1 - SCOPE OF THE COMPETITION

This competition is open to all wines from all countries and all viticultural regions with a specified geographical denomination. In what concerns the French wines, they should have made a statement of origin under article 10-144-0 and 10-144-01 of the Rural Code. Wines without geographical indication will not be accepted for the competition.

The competition is intended to highlight the intrinsic qualities of wines from specific geographical areas and to distinguish these areas of outstanding quality and that are exceptionally expressive of their terroir or origin.

The International competition is also destined to bring to light the strong economic impact, the professionalization and the expansion of French food culture of economic activity, the world of wine and of gastronomy on an international level.

The prizes awarded in the international competition will:

- Provide all consumers with a representative evaluation of their products.
- Encourage the search and sales of quality wines both in France and in international.
- Promote the quality, diversity and originality of French gastronomy (gastronomy and wine) and the diversity of French wine.
- Encourage the expansion of wine and wine culture as an international phenomenon.
- Refine the identity and consumer perception of gastronomic wine internationally.

MAISON des Cuvées de France Association will not be responsible for any bank charges associated with payment of the registration fees. Under no circumstances can the organization be held responsible, regardless of the extent for cancellations.

ARTICLE 10 - COMPETITION RESULTS

The winners will be presented by an official programme (written in the judging points). Upon arrival, the sample is identified by a label on the bottle indicating the name of the competition area, the registration number (lot) (Producer - Sample lot, Sample - Sample lot) and the code 06 00 70 or 06 00 80. It will be accompanied in a bottle with the type of ring. The responsibility is clear unambiguously by logging the sample to be presented to the judges. The bag containing the sample is placed in a clear bag and the sample is presented without opened on the bag containing the sample is indicated on a label, the organizer number (day, name and last number). The samples are grouped according to their category in series and submitted to the series. The organizer reserves the right to award a category for which an insufficient number of samples have been received (three samples minimum from three different countries).

Each wine label is scored individually and not collectively. The scores will be calculated and the best intrinsic properties. The winning outcome is a point by point system as used in the official OIV tasting manual of 100 points. The total number of judges is divided according to the number of samples presented.

The Technical Commission of the MAISON des Cuvées de France designates randomly twelve members of each jury through the selection of non-residents.

Each table jury consists of five jurors (maximum of four), 3 foreign judges and two French judges (with representing one of the five general bodies that correspond to the highlighted table: red, white and wine tourism table). We will find traces of the previous general assembly. The choice of foreign members is a deliberate because the panel reflects the tastes and expectations of consumers.

Each panel to host a different country sends Technical Commission officers to visit a wide geographical dispersion and panel lists. Each judging panel comprises five judges, two of which are French, designated for their address based on each of the following points:

- Panel 1 : winegrower and vineyard manager (owner - investor owners, producer) / President of the judging panel.
- Panel 2 : distributor, communication & wine tourism table.
- Panel 3 : table in gastronomy.
- Panel 4 : education, training and media.
- Panel 5 : wine house - wine tourism.

The information of the results of the competition is determined by the number of tables presented. The MAISON des Cuvées de France Association will not be responsible for any number of tables, dates or tables.
